

The Four Gallon Glide

This race is a pub crawl between four pubs. Two in Norton and two in the Moss Valley. It crosses the paths of two other well loved routes “The Moss Valley Meander” and “Charnock Chaser” and take in a few new trails, sites.

Rules

1. You can choose your own route between the pubs or follow the GPX if you prefer.
2. You can start at any of the check points but must finish where you started.
3. You must visit each check point at least once.
4. No bonus points but serious kudos for anyone who has a drink in each pub along the way.

Safety

Be careful crossing the dual carriageways and look out for traffic on any country lanes you run down.
